Behold the great king Akelebeth, his power
and rule unquestioned.
I write now of a new and great glory for our land! The great king has been given a
son by our queen!

Mondain son of Akelebeth born this day in April. brings new hope that our great ruler and way
of life will continue on for many generations! With the wisdom and power,

Mondain son of Akelebeth shall learn of the ways of good
and magic to flourish
our lands.

*you notice a strange
substance along the
seems of the book*

At night they appear in brilliance without being summoned,
When the light
returns they fade
without being stolen.

I never was, am always to be, I have never been seen and never will, and still the confidence of all,
to live to breath upon
this terrestrial ball.

I am thought, I am
space, I am what you read, I am what you know, I am what you learn, I help you grow, I not a substance but what you know.
